

The Pickle Parade

Now for Pickling and Preserving

The beets, beans, cucumbers, onions, peaches and pears need attention, and to insure perfection the housewife must have pure, unadulterated, full strength spices.

We want every housekeeper in this vicinity to know that can be bought at this store, and we guarantee them to be absolutely pure, finest quality and of full flavor. Their absolute purity is personally guaranteed by us to conform to the most rigid requirements of all Pure Food Commissions.

Symond's Inn Spices

If you take any pride in your pickling you will insist on Symond's Inn Spices

Then when your products are ready for the jars seal with

PARAWAX

SURE. SAFE. CLEAN. AIR TIGHT.

Easier to use than rubber rings.

Cleaner and always safe.

15 cents a pound.

Kelly Drug Company,

The Rexall Store

Gilmer & Baker,
Physicians and Surgeons.
Offices in Petty Building,
Big Stone Gap, Virginia.
All calls answered promptly.

BRISTOL CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE
Bookkeeping
Higher Accounting
Shorthand
Typewriting
Telegraphy
BRISTOL, TENN.-VA.

FOR COMMONWEALTH ATTORNEY
To the Voters of Wise County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Wise County, to be voted for at the November election, 1911. I pledge myself to use my best endeavors to see to it that the laws be strictly and impartially enforced, and further, to see to it that the business affairs of the county are economically administered.

I am honored with election, I promise to be an officer for the whole people, irrespective of party creeds, doctrines, or affiliations, and that I will serve the people to the best of my ability.

Respectfully,
W. W. G. DODSON.

FOR COUNTY CLERK
To the Voters of Wise County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Court Clerk for Wise County at the election to be held on November 7, 1911. If I am elected to this office I shall perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, using the most modern and up-to-date system of keeping the records and indexing the same that can be had. Anything that may be done for me in this election will be highly appreciated.

W. D. MCNIEL.

To the Voters of the Richmond Magisterial District:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to be voted for at the coming November election, and earnestly solicit the support and good will of all the people in the district.

W. T. GILLEY.

To the Voters of the Richmond Magisterial District:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Justice of the Peace, to be voted for at the coming November election, and earnestly solicit the support and good will of all the people in the district.

W. N. BRECKING.

LOCAL ITEMS.

E. Thompson Carter, of Gate City, was in town one day last week.

C. F. Hagan, a prominent Bristol business man, spent Thursday at the Monte Vista.

R. L. McLenore and wife, of Wise, were guests of J. M. McLenore, at the Monte Vista, Friday.

J. H. Pierpont was down from Norton Saturday.

J. W. Landreth, the new tinner, whose announcement is published in this issue, went to Bristol Saturday to secure an assistant for several jobs he has secured at Whitesburg, Ky.

State Senator Roland E. Chase, of Clintwood, is in town looking after business in connection with Federal Court.

George England, who is connected with the Ritter Lumber Company, at Hurley, Buchanan county, spent Sunday in the Gap.

Mrs. R. D. Morrison and little son, Robert, Jr., left this morning for Ewing, Va., where they will be the house guests of Miss Kate Richmond for several days.

Dr. J. Q. Jayne spent Wednesday of last week in Norton on business for the Mutual Drug Co., of this place.

Gen. R. A. Ayers returned Friday night from Bristol, where he attended the Board of Trade banquet, incident to the formal opening of Hotel Bristol.

A reward of $200 is being offered for the arrest of Silas Owens, accused of murdering a son of S. H. Griggle, at Artrip, last April.

Mrs. Vina Prophet died near Artrip last week at the age of 98. She had been a member of the Primitive Baptist church for 62 years, and is survived by her husband, who is 100 years and 4 months old.

D. E. Allen, of Big Stone Gap, Va., is in Harlan doing some work for C. P. Perin, of New York, in connection with land business.—Harlan, (Ky.) Enterprise.

Mrs. C. C. Craft, of Harri-man, Tenn., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bunn, on Clinton avenue.

On next Sunday night at the Southern Methodist church Children's Day will be observed. A nice program for the occasion has been prepared, and everyone who attends will find the exercises interesting.

G. E. Taylor has gone to Jenkins, Ky., where he has been awarded a contract to grade about ten miles of railroad for the consolidated Coke Company. He expects to commence work on his contract at once.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Southern Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Otis Mosser, on Poplar Hill, this afternoon at three o'clock.

W. G. Counts is spending most of his time at Jenkins, Ky., where he is installing a modern plumbing job in the hospital building of the Consolidation Coal Company.

Cox Brothers made two runs of castings from their new foundry last week, both of which were fully up to standard, though the cupola had not been previously "tried out."

A letter from Mr. McCue, of the V. & S. W., states that the work of completing the underpass, where the public road passes under the V. & S. W. track beyond Roaring Branch, will be taken up at once and pushed to completion.

Very large hail stones are reported to have fallen in the vicinity of Dorchester Junction and West Norton during the rain storm which passed over this section Saturday.

Misses Rosa and Flora Bruce returned Sunday night from a ten days visit with relatives and friends in Lee and Scott counties.

Mrs. R. H. Bruce visited in Wise and Glamorgan last week.

The following spent a pleasant day at Natural Tunnel Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Jerome L. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. V. Wells, Willie L. Jones, Miss Lillian Wells.

Miss Mayne Perry will teach music in the Dryden High School the ensuing session, while Miss Hallie Perry will teach at Flatwoods, Lee county.

I. T. Gilly has accepted a position in J. B. Collier's store, and he and his family will occupy the Cochran concrete building adjoining Dr. Orr.

LOST—Mrs. S. A. Bailey lost an embroidered white linen belt one day last week between her home and the Minor building. She would be glad to have the finder of the belt either return it to her or leave it at the printing office.

CHOCOLATES CHOCOLATES CHOCOLATES CHOCOLATES

WHITMAN'S CANDIES.

BENDETTO ALLEGRETTI COMPANY'S

Delicious Maraschino Chocolate Creams, Dipped Fruit and Pure Fruit Flavors. The best assortment of package candies in town. All our candies guaranteed to be fresh and in good condition or money refunded.

Crushed Fruit Sundaes, Ices, Sodas

as cold as the Arctic regions.

Cigars, Safety Razors, Sterling and Waterman Fountain Pens.

All kinds of Toilet Requisites.

Mutual Drug Company, Inc.

Special Attention Given to Physicians' Prescriptions. Everything to be had in a First Class Drug Store.

Miss Elizabeth Richmond, an attractive young lady of Dryden, is visiting Misses Thelma and Mary Baker, in the Gap, this week.

The quotation relative to a "stiff-necked generation" does not apply to two popular stenographers in town who have been thus afflicted the past week. The young ladies, however, say they have become quite proficient in rolling their eyes expressively while their heads have been stationary.

Mrs. L. C. Shelbourne, of Pennington Gap, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. D. May, of this place.—Tazewell Republican.

Attorney J. F. Bullitt, of this place, was elected president of the Virginia State Bar Association during the annual session of that body at Richmond last Wednesday.

Mrs. C. I. Wade, Jr., left Thursday for Bristol, where she will spend a fortnight with friends and relatives.

G. D. Jenkins, the photographer, is suffering from blood poisoning in his hand and arm, caused by cutting his right thumb on a piece of glass and not giving it proper attention.

Miss Vera Willis left Friday morning for a week's visit to friends in Knoxville.

Railway mail service will be inaugurated on the Holston River division of the Virginia and Southwestern railroad, between Moccasin Gap, Va., and Bulls Gap, Tenn., on September 4.

Miss Elsie Taylor, the young daughter of Captain and Mrs. Henry Taylor, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid for several weeks, is convalescing.

Twenty gallons of ice cream was sold Monday at both drug stores, mostly in ice cream sodas to the thirsty visitors in town, and at least a barrel of plain soda water.

Mrs. Melissa Siemp, mother of Mrs. G. B. Myers, of this place, is not expected to live.

Miss Mand Ould, of Norton, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, left Saturday night for her home, accompanied by Miss Florence McCormick, who will be her guest for several days.

Drs. Gilmer and Baker, of this place, assisted by Dr. Bradley Young, of Lee county, amputated the arm of Samuel Lunsford, of Jasper, Va., Monday at the shoulder joint—disarticulation of the shoulder joint, technically speaking. The operation was very successful, and the patient is doing well at this writing.

Miss Elizabeth Talley, of Jonesville, Va., a young lady of excellent family and for years employed on many of the leading local papers in Southwest Virginia, arrived Monday. She will be employed as typist on the Eagle. (The young men are not allowed to read this item.—Whitesburg Eagle.)

Judge and Mrs. H. C. McDowell arrived in the Gap Sunday evening, and while her husband is holding United States Court here, Mrs. McDowell will visit friends in the Gap, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fox, Sr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Young were up from Turkey Cove one day last week.

Mrs. Emmett Orr and children, of Jonesville, are visiting Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Hurman, at this place.—Tazewell Republican.

Mrs. G. E. Tyle, of Ganoesville, Fla., arrived in the Gap last week on a visit to her mother, Mrs. L. D. Abbott, of St. Louis, Mo., who is spending the summer in the Gap, the guest of Mrs. J. P. Wolfe, on Imboden Hill. Mrs. Tyle is the wife of Prof. G. E. Tyle, of the University of Florida, who is at present visiting friends in Bristol.

John W. Chalkley, of Big Stone Gap, was in the city one day this week looking after legal matters.—Jonesville Star.

It is the intention of William Mullins to move his stock of goods from his present location on Wyandotte avenue into the Summerfield building on Wood avenue as soon as the repairs on this building are completed by the contractor, W. F. Baker.

Dan Littrell was in town last week and closed a trade with E. E. Prosscott, for two cottages on Gilly avenue. Mr. Littrell expects to move his family back to the Gap the first of September, in order that his children may enter school. He thinks it quite probable that his father and mother will also move to the Gap, and the two families will occupy the Prosscott cottages.

Charley Duffy, Ed Tate, Ed Taylor, Duck Wampler, Ernest Hall, Bill Batley, Straley Tate, Charley Adams, Ewing Lipps and Wat Green and several others, who have been attending the Dante Sunday School Convention, returned Sunday night, being in charge of Capt. Frank Richmond.—Wise County News.

Rev. Charles F. Hunter, of Pennington Gap, will hold services at the Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening at eight o'clock.

Miss Myrtle Cawood returned last week from Harrisonburg, where she passed her examinations successfully. Miss Janet Bailey will remain at the Normal School until the first of September, when she will return to take charge of the public school at Imboden.

Mrs. E. H. Ould and sister, Miss Cora Cole, and Miss Tansill, of Fredericksburg, Va., spent Wednesday in town visiting friends and sight seeing.

FOR SALE—One six room two story dwelling with all necessary out buildings, located near the L. & N. station. Price $800. Apply to J. C. Mitchell, Big Stone Gap.

Mrs. Malcolm Smith and her children came over from Big Stone Gap Tuesday evening, accompanied by Mrs. Smith's father, S. W. Wax. Mrs. Wax has been here ever since last Thursday. They are guests at Hotel Bonright.—Gate City Herald.

WANTED—At once, four girls for Laundry work.

ROYAL LAUNDRY CO.,
Big Stone Gap, Va.

The children of the Christian Sunday school went up to Roaring Branch in Mr. Long's automobile this morning (Wednesday), where they will spend the day picnicking.

W. H. Polly let to contract last week the erection of an eight room two story residence in block 20, opposite the residence of W. S. Beverley. This will be a modern and up-to-date residence in every particular. The contract was awarded R. L. Brown, and work on the building will be commenced at once and pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

APPALACHIAN EXPOSITION

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

September 11 to October 1

Main Building Containing 80,000 Square Feet of Exhibit Space.

A Most Magnificent and Novel Exploitation of Resources of the Entire Appalachian Region

$50,000 in alluring attractions varying in variety. Innumerable high class midway features. Aviation tournament. Panoramic presentation of the historic spectacle, "Battle of King's Mountain," in peerless pyrotechnics. $35,000 in premiums for live stock, horticultural and agricultural displays, poultry and pet stock, automobiles and horseracing, and every conceivable line of industrial and commercial enterprises.

The most complete exhibit of timber and mineral products of the South that has yet been assembled.

President Taft, Speaker Champ Clark, Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Gov. Jud. Harmon, Gov. Ben W. Hooper, Col. William J. Bryan and many other men of national and international fame will be guests and speakers.

Remember the Dates,
September 11 to October 1

Remember the Railroad Rates,
The Best Ever Given To Any Exposition